Advancing Women in Biomechanics

Date	August 3 rd , 2019. From 7:30PM
Tickets	https://isb2019.com/en/buy-tickets
Who Should Attend	Everyone interested in helping advance women in biomechanics is welcome – please come and join the conversation, share your experiences, learn more about the challenges faced by women in our field and discuss proactive solutions.
Details	This event raises the topic of ‘difficult conversations’ with respect to women in the field of biomechanics. Facilitators will guide the conversations and attendees will be given the opportunity to dive deeper into each subtopic via a roundtable discussion format. Attendees will leave with strategies to initiate and respond when having a difficult conversation.
What’s Included	Wine and cheese

Expression of Interest | Round-Table Leaders

We are seeking expressions of interest from delegates who may be interested in serving as round-table leaders. If you are passionate about advancing women in biomechanics and would like to learn more, please contact our round-table coordinator, Jill McNitt-Gray (mcnitt@usc.edu). Delegates from diverse backgrounds are highly encouraged to reach out.
